

SESSION - 2022-2023

ONE DAY NATIONAL SEMINAR REPORT

Athavale College of Social Work, Chimur, Dist. Chandrapur, Maharashtra State organised One Day National Seminar on "Education for Sustainable Development and Social Work Intervention" at Athavale College of Social Work, Chimur on dated 27th September 2022, Tuesday. Eleven sub-themes was structured and the brouchre was circulated to the principal of various colleges of India and requested to circulate among the staff and students of their college and also the detail brouchre was circulated to various consent agencies, NGO's etc. fifty participant have actively participated in the seminar from various state of India. Mainly the seminar was divided into five sessions.

Inaugural Session :

Dr. Chandansingh Premsingh Rotele, Founder, President of Athavale College of Social Work, Chimur, Dist. Chandrapur, Maharashtra State and President of Maharashtra Social Work Educators and Management Forum, Chair the Session Principal, Athavale College of Social Work, Chimur, Dist. Chandrapur, Maharashtra State delivered introductory speech Inaugural all the dignitaries light the inaugural lamp of the session. All the dignitaries on the dias welcome and felicitated and the inaugural session all over with the valuable speech of the chairperson.

Session II - was conducted by Dr. Smith, Dr. Acharya, Director, IQAC, Department of Physics, Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj Nagpur University Nagpur, Mainly express her views on Education for sustainable development : strength, weakness, opportunities and challenges in details all the participants was impressed by her present lecture, presentation and all the participant come to know that education, non-formal education, role of education is important for sustainable development. All the participants listen her speech very attentively and appreciated.

Session III - Dr. Payal Shaorey, Head of the Department, Post Graduate Teaching Development of Law, Rashtrasant Tukdoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur, Chairman, Board of Studies (Law), Co-ordinater, IPR Cell-RTM Nagpur University, Completed International Research Consultancy Project BYRWI, Sweden, Completed fully sponsored International Research Project from Raoul Wollenberg Institute of Human Rights and Humanitarian Law, Lund, Sweden, etc. shared her views on Rural Sustainable Development In India : Challenges and Approaches, Environmental Education for sustainable development, sustainable development and corporate social responsibility, Dialogues and Practical Approaches to Education for sustainable development. It was a good very much informative and interesting session for all the participants. Most of the participant respond her views very sensitively.

Session IV - Ms. Paromita Goswami, Founder Elgar Pratishthan and Shramik Elgar, She seeks to empower some of the India's poorest and most marginalized citizens, the residents of the Chandrapur and Gadchiroli district of the state of Maharashtra. To protect their rights and help them access justice, she concentrates on the economic and educational development of rural communities. She build a training center for rural community organizers, she also involved in strengthening elected representatives of local self governance, organizing women against violence and implementation of social justice legislation. Shared her detail knowledge about role of education and social worker in sustainable development of modern India, strategizing social work response to sustainable development goals open through open and distance learning, action research for creating knowledge and sustainable development. All the participants was impressed by her depth of knowledge about sustainable development and social work intervention. She is renowned social worker of Chandrapur and Gadchiroli district.

Session V - After completion of all the of resource persons/experts, this session open for all the participants to make their confusions clear with the help of resource person many participants asked their questions on various issues of education for sustainable development and social work intervention. The resource persons was also very happy to see the responses of the participants regarding the topic. Some of the participants said that they will again contact with the resource person to discuss on some important issues of the sustainable development. Lastly all the participants got their certificates with the hand of guest. In this way the valedictory session and seminar was over.